

ABOUT ME

Albert Maravillo
Sales Representative
albertm@chromascape.com

As one of ChromaScape's Sales Representatives, Albert not only excels in sales but also thrives in a collaborative work environment. Known for his team-oriented approach, he actively contributes to improving plant efficiencies, always ready to lend a helping hand wherever needed. Albert's commitment to teamwork and his diverse skill set make him a valuable asset to the ChromaScape family.

With an impressive two-decade tenure as a corrugator supervisor, Albert honed his skills in overseeing the production of corrugated products, demonstrating leadership and efficiency in a dynamic manufacturing environment. His expertise in plant operations laid a solid foundation for his subsequent roles in the industry.

Albert attended Hartnell College in Salinas, California.

Albert's heart lies in Salinas, where he resides with his beloved family. His wife, Isela and their children – Albert Jr., Arianna, Anthony and Alexa. Family is paramount to Albert, and he finds joy in spending quality time with them.

Albert is an avid outdoors enthusiast. Whether it's hiking through nature trails, tending to his garden or enjoying music, he finds solace and fulfillment in these activities. Albert's love for the outdoors extends to his passion for exploring National Parks and discovering new places.

Top Skills:

Plant Operation Optimization • Inventory Management • Strategic Thinking and Problem Solving • Customer Service

Specialties:

Corrugated Products Expert • Sales Strategy Development and Execution • Team Leadership and Supervision

Experience:

International Paper: Corrugator Supervisor

